AH-SPRITE AND MG-MIDGET WITH 1275 CC ENGINES

CONNECTING RODS

After original connecting rods for the AH-Sprite and MG-Midget with 1275 cm³ engines were not available for a long time, they are now available from us again.

We offer a forged version made of high-quality 42CrMo4 steel at an attractive price and have supplemented the connecting rods with connecting rod bolts and connecting rod nuts to create a ready-to-fit set. The connecting rod bolts and nuts are also available separately.

- » Complete with connecting rod bolts and connecting rod nuts
- » High-quality, forged design made from 42CrMo4 steel
- » Connecting rod bolts and nuts also available individually
