SPORTS EXHAUST SYSTEM

now available with ECE approval

Good news for all drivers of the legendary BMW Z1: the tried-and-tested BASTUCK sports exhaust system is now available with ECE approval.

This means that the previous requirement for registration via a parts certificate no longer applies, and the sports exhaust system can now be used legally on public roads without any additional entry in the vehicle documents.

The high-quality stainless steel system comprises two sports rear silencers, each with twin tailpipes (2 x Ø 63 mm), and impresses with its precision-fit workmanship and sporty, resonant sound. It thus delivers an exhilarating driving experience that perfectly matches the character of this rare roadster.

The sports exhaust system for the BMW Z1 is available from stock immediately.
